

Checklist of Forms and Documents: Temporary Protected Status

- Copy of photo page of passport, OR
- Copy of birth certificate AND photo ID, OR
- Any national identity document bearing your photograph and/or fingerprint issued by your country, including documents issued by your country's Embassy or Consulate in the United States, such as a national ID card or naturalization certificate.
- Date of Entry Evidence (to show continuous physical presence) A copy of the entry stamp from passport, and/or Form I-94,
- Evidence of continuous residence since the entry date such as:
 - Rent receipts
 - Utility bills
 - Employment records (pay stubs, W-2 forms, etc.)
 - Letter from employer on company letterhead, including contact information
 - School records (letters with date, report cards, etc.)
 - Medical records regarding treatment of the client or the client's children
 - Official records from a religious entity confirming participation in a religious ceremony.
 - Attestation by a church that they have known the client since a specific date and knows where the client resides.
 - Copies of money order receipts for money sent in or out of the country
 - Passport entry stamp.
 - Birth certificates of children born in the U.S.
 - Dated bank transactions
 - Automobile license receipts or registration Insurance documents showing dates insured
 - Deeds, mortgages, rental agreements, or other legal documents
 - Marriage documents
 - Tax receipts, insurance policies
 - Social media page entries showing locations.
 - Printed party invitations showing your name and date.
 - Any other document that you believe may help prove continuous residence
- Filing fee OR supporting evidence of application for fee waiver
- Two passport-style photos for the I-765, if applicable
- Contact NICE for fee details: (615) 315-9681

NASHVILLE INTERNATIONAL
Center for Empowerment

IMPORTANT NOTES:

- We recommend providing at least one document per month to prove presence. For example, one could include medical records from May and rent receipts from June.
- This list is not exhaustive but provides a number of ideas of how a client could prove physical presence and residence.